Which Azure AI workload is designed to extract insights from large volumes of unstructured data (like PDFs and images)?	A bank wants to monitor credit card transactions for unusual behavior. Which AI workload should they use?
A business needs to extract key phrases and sentiment from customer reviews. Which AI workload applies?	Which AI workload is used for visual tasks like classifying objects in photos or detecting faces?
Which Responsible AI principle ensures systems treat all users fairly, avoiding discrimination in decisions like loan approvals?	A healthcare provider wants to ensure AI systems protect patient confidentiality. Which principle applies?
A company adds in-depth documentation so users understand how their AI system works and its limitations. Which principle is this?	An AI startup sets up strict oversight committees to monitor AI deployments for ethical and legal compliance. Which principle?

An AI system for public services is tested to ensure it benefits all demographics equally. Which principle applies?	A company uses rigorous testing to ensure its autonomous vehicles don’t malfunction in unpredictable conditions. Which principle?
How is Fairness different from Inclusiveness in Responsible AI?	How is Transparency different from Accountability?